ORDER

AND NOW, on this 12th day of November, 2021, because the parties in the above-captioned action have notified the court that they have agreed to resolve this case by settlement, IT IS ORDERED as follows:

1. All deadlines in this action are STAYED;
2. The Clerk of Court is ordered to mark this matter CLOSED for administrative purposes only;
3. The parties shall file an appropriate stipulation of dismissal pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(a),¹ which specifies whether the dismissal will be with or without prejudice;

¹ Rule 41 contemplates three methods of dismissal. Before an answer or summary judgment motion has been filed, an action can be dismissed by a notice of dismissal signed by the plaintiff alone. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(a)(1)(A)(i). After an answer or motion for summary judgment has been filed, the parties can dismiss a case by filing a stipulation of dismissal signed by all parties who have appeared. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(a)(1)(A)(ii). Either of these filings operates to close the case and end the court's jurisdiction without further court action. For any dismissal that is conditional or otherwise requires court approval, including, for example, a request that the court

4. Either party may file a notice to reinstate this action if the settlement is not consummated within sixty days of this order, provided that such notice is filed no later than January 12, 2022; and

5. If the parties fail to timely file a stipulation of dismissal or notice to reinstate this action within the sixty days, this order shall operate as a voluntary dismissal with prejudice, based on the parties' aforementioned notice of settlement. See Papera v. Pa. Quarried Bluestone Co., 948 F.3d 607, 610–12 (3d Cir. 2020).
